“Let Every Thing That Hath Breath Praise the Lord”

The Mercy of the Lord

Ps 102:13,16-18

What is the Lord promising “the generation to come” regarding Zion?

Bruce R. McConkie

“The holy man of old who spake as he was moved upon by the Holy Ghost said these words: ‘This shall be written for the generation to come’; it is sent to ‘the people which shall be created, to a people who ‘shall praise the Lord.’

“We are that people, a people who once again receive revelation, a people to whom God has given anew the fulness of his everlasting gospel, in consequence of which we praise his holy name forever.

“The message which has come to us is that the Lord will ‘have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.’” The message is that “when the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.” (CR, April 1977)

Ps 103:17-22

To whom is the Psalmist promising the Lord's mercy and blessings?

James E. Faust

“May you have an eternal perspective as you go about your angelic cause of doing good so that it will not only lead you to become great women but ultimately to become queens in the eternities.

“I ask the Lord to bless each of you precious young sisters that you will, as the Psalmist said, be ‘his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.’ I pray that you may enjoy the righteous desires of your heart.” (CR, April 1998)

The Mercy of the Lord

Ps 110:1-4

What is promised to those who keep their covenants?

Dale G. Renlund

“This oath pertains only to the Melchizedek Priesthood, and it is God who swears the oath, not the priesthood holder. It is God who swears an oath as He makes the covenant with the recipient. Elder Bruce R. McConkie said: ‘The Lord swears with an oath in his own name ... that everyone who keeps the covenant made in connection with the Melchizedek Priesthood shall inherit, receive, and possess all things in his everlasting kingdom. ... God swore with an oath that Christ would be exalted, and he swears anew, at the time each of us receives the Melchizedek Priesthood, that we will have a like exaltation if we are true and faithful in all things’ (“The Doctrine of the Priesthood,” pg. 33). (CR, Oct. 2017)

The Mercy of the Lord

Ps 116:7-10,13-15

What can we look forward to, because of the atonement, if we keep the commandments?

Russell M. Nelson

“Scriptures teach that death is essential to happiness: ‘Now behold, it was not expedient that man should be reclaimed from this temporal death, for that would destroy the great plan of happiness’ (Alma 42:8).

“Our limited perspective would be enlarged if we could witness the reunion on the other side of the veil, when doors of death open to those returning home. Such was the vision of the psalmist who wrote, ‘Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.’” (CR, April 1992)

Russell M. Nelson

“The aging process is also a gift from God, as is death. The eventual death of your mortal body is essential to God’s great plan of happiness. Why? Because death will allow your spirit to return home to Him. [The Psalmist wrote, Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.’ Death is precious because it is a ‘homecoming’ for the Saint with the Lord.] From an eternal perspective, death is only premature for those who are not prepared to meet God.” (CR, Oct. 2013)

The Mercy of the Lord

Ps 118:5-9

How much confidence should we put in the precepts of man, even if they are men of great authority?

Thomas S. Monson

“We must have faith in ourselves, faith in the ability of our Heavenly Father to bless us and to guide us in our endeavors. Many years ago the writer of a psalm wrote a beautiful truth: ‘It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man. It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.’ In other words, let us put our confidence in the ability of the Lord to guide us. Friendships, we know, may alter and change, but the Lord is constant.” (CR, Oct. 2007)

The Mercy of the Lord

Matt 21:42-45

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

The Mercy of the Lord

Ps 147:1-3

James E. Faust

“The Lord has provided many avenues by which we may receive this healing influence. I am grateful that the Lord has restored temple work to the earth. It is an important part of the work of salvation for both the living and the dead. Our temples provide a sanctuary where we may go to lay aside many of the anxieties of the world. Our temples are places of peace and tranquillity. In these hallowed sanctuaries God ‘healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.’” (CR, April 1992)

Dieter F. Uchtdorf

“My dear friends, the Savior heals the broken heart and binds up your wounds. Whatever your challenges may be, wherever you live on this earth, your faithful membership in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the divine powers of the gospel of Jesus Christ will bless you to endure joyfully to the end.” (CR, Oct. 2007)

Ps 119:2,10-12

What do you think it means to seek the Lord with all your heart?

Ulisses Soares

“Being aware of all that is necessary for us in this life, the Savior invites us to seek Him in every thought and to follow Him with all our heart. This gives us the promise that we can walk in His light and that His guidance prevents the influence of darkness in our life.

“Seeking Christ in every thought and following Him with all our heart requires that we align our mind and desires with His. The scriptures refer to this alignment as ‘stand[ing] fast in the Lord.’” (CR, Oct. 2020)

Ps 119:15-18,92-93

What can we expect if we love gospel and the commandments?

Marion G. Romney

“The Psalmist thus recounts the rewards which follow knowing and meditating upon the word of God...

“I am persuaded, my brethren and sisters, that it is irrational to hope to escape the lusts of the world without substituting for them as the subjects of our thoughts the things of the spirit.” (CR, April 1960)

Gain a Testimony and Live By It

Ps 119:32-35,59-60

Carlos E. Asay

“An assessment of one’s current position, in relationship to the ultimate goal of eternal life, can and must be obtained by looking toward the light which comes from God through personal revelation, the scriptures, and the words of living prophets.

“The Psalmist said, ‘I thought on my ways, and turned my feet.’ Of the prodigal son, it is written, ‘He came to himself’ (Luke 15:17). We too must think on our ways, come to ourselves, and turn our feet toward God, who is our goal.” (CR, April 1996)

Gain a Testimony and Live By It

Ps 119:97,103-105

Joseph B. Wirthlin

“Nephi taught that by clinging to the word of God, as though it be a handrail, we would be able to avoid temptations and not lose our way in darkness. Thus, we would remain on the narrow path.

“Using another apt symbol, the Psalmist wrote: ‘Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.’

“God’s word, then, is the light for our path, the iron rod or railing to which we can cling. It provides the limiting lines that we must not cross if we are to reach our destination.” (CR, Oct. 1990)

Russell M. Nelson

“If our journey through life is to be successful, we need to follow divine direction. The Lord said, ‘Look unto me in every thought; doubt not, fear not’ (D&C 6:36). And the Psalmist wrote, ‘Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.’ ...

“In your journey through life, you meet many obstacles and make some mistakes. Scriptural guidance helps you to recognize error and make the necessary correction. You stop going in the wrong direction. You carefully study the scriptural road map. Then you proceed with repentance and restitution required to get on the ‘strait and narrow path which leads to eternal life’ (2 Nephi 31:18).” (CR, Oct. 2000)

Ps 119:24,46-50

Why is it important that bear our testimonies about the Lord and His gospel?

John Longden

“I have a witness and testify to you also that I know this thing called Mormonism is true, for it embodies the full gospel of Jesus Christ. When individuals have that testimony, though there may be periods of confusion—periods of deliberation—they are always able to come through, provided the roots of their testimony are deep within their hearts.

“The Psalmist declared, ‘Blessed are they that keep his testimonies.’” (CR, April 1957)

Ps 119:140,162-165

What blessings can we expect as we develop and grow a testimony of the Lord?

David A. Bednar

“To believe that someone or something can make us feel offended, angry, hurt, or bitter diminishes our moral agency and transforms us into objects to be acted upon. As agents, however, you and I have the power to act and to choose how we will respond to an offensive or hurtful situation....

“Through the strengthening power of the Atonement of Jesus Christ, you and I can be blessed to avoid and triumph over offense. ‘Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.’” (CR, Oct. 2006)

Ps 119:71-72,127-130

Raising Children

Ps 127:1-5

What should we consider when starting and raising a family?

“Husband and wife have a solemn responsibility to love and care for each other and for their children. ‘Children are an heritage of the Lord.’ Parents have a sacred duty to rear their children in love and righteousness, to provide for their physical and spiritual needs, and to teach them to love and serve one another, observe the commandments of God, and be law-abiding citizens wherever they live.” (“The Family: A Proclamation to the World”, 2010)

Howard W. Hunter

"In the ordinances of the temple, the foundations of the eternal family are sealed in place. The Church has the responsibility—and the authority—to preserve and protect the family as the foundation of society. The pattern for family life, instituted from before the foundation of the world, provides for children to be born to and nurtured by a father and mother who are husband and wife, lawfully married. Parenthood is a sacred obligation and privilege, with children welcomed as a 'heritage of the Lord.'

"A worried society now begins to see that the disintegration of the family brings upon the world the calamities foretold by the prophets. The world's councils and deliberations will succeed only when they define the family as the Lord has revealed it to be. 'Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it.'" (CR, Oct. 1994)
