“He Taught Them as One Having Authority”

Principles of the Law of Christ

Matt 6:1-4

What does Jesus caution us about giving to those in need?

James E. Talmage

“The tossing of alms to a beggar, the pouring of offerings into the temple treasure chests, to be seen of men, and similar displays of affected liberality, were fashionable among certain classes in the time of Christ; and the same Spirit is manifest today. Some... call attention to their giving, that they may... get what in their estimation is worth more than that from which they part. With logical incisiveness the Master demonstrated that such givers have their reward.” (Jesus the Christ, pg. 237)

Matt 6:5-6

What is an import think to keep in mind when we are offering prayers either in public or private?

Eldred G. Smith

“Let us be humble in all our prayers. Beware of lip service. Remember how the Lord criticized the hypocrites who prayed openly for the glory of men....

“It is not always the words we use in prayer that count so much as the spirit in which they are said.... What better example do we have than the simple, humble prayer of a child?” (CR, April 1955)

Matt 6:16-18

Why is it important for us not to appear pious when we are fasting and otherwise seeking to obey the commandments?

Joseph F. Smith

“We are not here to seek the joys of the flesh, and yet the Lord does not design that we should go about sorrowful, or that we should deny ourselves of any legitimate [joy]. The Lord never intended that we should go around fasting, mourning, grieving, weeping and wailing, while we sojourn in mortality....

“[We should] appear to the world to be happy. This is the privilege of every Latter-day Saint, and indeed the privilege of every soul that lives. There is abundance of joy to be obtained aside from the joy which ends in suffering and sorrow. Seek those joys that bring no alloy with them, those joys which are unremitting, eternal in their nature. Do good.” (JD, 25:51)

Matt 6:9-13

What does Jesus stress that we should ask for in His example of a righteous pray?

Hugh Nibley

“The Lord's Prayer is more than just a way of getting through life, a code of morals or a pattern of behavior. It is an appeal to a Father we have known before and hope to dwell with hereafter. It asks for help in carrying out the first and greatest commandment. In this very short prayer, God, man as the child of God, and fellowman are all put in their proper relationship, which is the closest possible family association, approaching identity. The Tempter and his methods are introduced without which the statement of the Gospel plan would be incomplete; for the prayer by its very nature is an appeal from those in distress who are supplicating for something much better than what they have.

“What we want is to dwell in the Father's Kingdom under the sole dominion of his divine will by his power and in his glory forever and ever.” (Of All Things! Classic Quotations from Hugh Nibley, pg. 180)

Matt 6:14-15

Why is it so important that we are quick to forgive others?

Jeffrey R. Holland

“Life is too short to be spent nursing animosities or in keeping a box score of offenses against us.... We don’t want God to remember our sins, so there is something fundamentally wrong in our relentlessly trying to remember those of others.... Clearly the more provocation there is and the more excuse we can find for our hurt, all the more reason for us to forgive and be delivered from the destructive hell of such poisonous venom and anger. It is one of those ironies of godhood that in order to find peace, the offended as well as the offender must engage the principle of forgiveness.”

Matt 6:25-26,33-34

What do you think of Jesus' admonition that we should not bother think about taking care of our temporal needs?

3 Nephi 13:25

And now it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words he looked upon the twelve whom he had chosen, and said unto them... take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on...

What does this verse clarify?

Jeffrey R. Holland

“In a general sense these verses can apply to all believers, but at their most literal level they apply to those the Lord has called as his full-time witnesses. Most people must give some thought to what they will eat and what they will wear; the necessities of life require it. But the twelve disciples were not to do so, for they were chosen “to minister unto [the] people.” Their call was to give complete devotion to their spiritual ministry and to trust in God's—and the people's—providence for their temporal needs.” (Christ And The New Covenant, pg. 265)

Matt 7:1-5

3 Nephi 14:1

...when Jesus had spoken these words he turned again to the multitude, and did open his mouth unto them again, saying: Verily, verily, I say unto you, Judge not, that ye be not judged.

JST Matt 7:2

Judge not unrighteously, that ye be not judged: but judge righteous judgment.

How do know how to judge righteously?

Moroni 7:15-17

15 For behold, my brethren, it is given unto you to judge, that ye may know good from evil; and the way to judge is as plain, that ye may know with a perfect knowledge, as the daylight is from the dark night.

16 For behold, the Spirit of Christ is given to every man, that he may know good from evil; wherefore, I show unto you the way to judge; for every thing which inviteth to do good, and to persuade to believe in Christ, is sent forth by the power and gift of Christ; wherefore ye may know with a perfect knowledge it is of God.

17 But whatsoever thing persuadeth men to do evil, and believe not in Christ, and deny him, and serve not God, then ye may know with a perfect knowledge it is of the devil; for after this manner doth the devil work, for he persuadeth no man to do good, no, not one; neither do his angels; neither do they who subject themselves unto him.

Spencer W. Kimball

“Our vision is completely obscured when we have no mirror to hold up to our own faults and look only for the foibles of others. When we follow the instructions of the Lord, we are kept so busy perfecting ourselves that we come to realize that the faults of others are small in comparison. We should establish the delightful habit, then, of minimizing the weaknesses of others and thus increase our own virtues.

“He who will not forgive others breaks down the bridge over which he himself must travel.” (The Miracle of Forgiveness, pg. 269)

Matt 7:6

In this parable, who are the swine and what are the pearls that should be kept from them?

Why?

John Taylor

"Why is it that a swine cannot discern the value of pearls, and tramples them under its feet? Because it does not understand—it has not the intelligence, and does not comprehend the difference between the filth that surrounds it and precious gems. You might cast a precious jewel at a hog, and it would turn and rend you; but throw that to a man of understanding and intelligence, and he would ask for more....

"The men of the world... know not the spirit that animates our bosoms; they know not the hope that God has inspired in our hearts; they know not the things pertaining to the kingdom of God; they are as ignorant of them and of their own destiny as the brute beast."
(JD, 5:145)

Matt 7:7-11

What does Jesus promise to all who ask, seek, and knock?

Howard W. Hunter

“Every seeker receives; every seeker finds. Yet not every asker receives what he asks; not every seeker finds what he seeks. As an earthly father gives good gifts to his children, so God gives good things to those that ask him, not always what they ask, for they often ask amiss, but something far better than that which they ask for or seek. Those who would obtain exactly what they ask must confine their will to God's and ask for things which they know he is willing to give.” (The Teachings of Howard W. Hunter, pg. 37-38)

Matt 7:12

Russell M. Nelson

'He taught the Golden Rule.... Wherever it is found and however it is expressed, the Golden Rule encompasses the moral code of the kingdom of God. It forbids interference by one with the rights of another. It is equally binding upon nations, associations, and individuals. With compassion and forbearance.'" (CR, Oct. 2002)

What is the difference between the words strait and straight?

What is the strait gate that we must enter in?

Bruce R. McConkie

“The course leading to eternal life is both strait and straight. It is straight because it has an invariable direction -- always it is the same. There are no diversions, crooked paths, or tangents leading to the kingdom of God. It is strait because it is narrow and restricted, a course where full obedience to the full law is required. Straightness has reference to direction, straitness to width. The gate is strait; the path is both strait and straight.

“Thus by entering in at the strait gate (which is repentance and baptism) a person gets on the ‘straight and narrow path which leads to eternal life’ (2 Ne. 31:17-18).” (Mormon Doctrine, pg. 769)

Matt 7:15-23

JST 7:33

And then will I say, Ye never knew me; depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

What important message does the Lord have for His disciples as he nears the end of his sermon?

John Taylor

“That belongs a little closer to some of us than we imagine; for I do not think that Gentiles do much prophesying in the name of God; I do not think they cast out many devils in the name of God, or do any wonderful works in his name. Jesus was speaking to a people that had done these things, the same, perhaps, as some of you have, and yet you have become careless and indifferent, and in many instances have made shipwreck of a good conscience and failed to keep the covenants you have made.” (JD, 18:201)

Matt 7:24-29

What does the house represent?

What will happen to everyones house?

Bruce R. McConkie

“Every person born in this world builds a house of some sort and puts it on a foundation of his own choosing. And every house built in this mortal sphere is subject to the storms and strifes of life. Our mortal probation is one in which the divine purpose calls for rain and wind and floods.

“We live in the midst of a swirling storm of sin. The rains of evil and the winds of false doctrine and the floods of carnality beat upon every house.....

“If our house is built upon a rock with the brick and mortar of good works, it will withstand the storms and perils of life.... If it is built upon the sands of evil with the rusty nails and rotting timber of carnal things, it will be destroyed when the rains and the winds and the floods beat upon it.” (CR, April 1981)
